

MINUTES OF A WORK SESSION OF HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION
HELD JULY 8, 2008

The Historic Preservation Commission of the City of Eufaula met in work session July 8, 2008, at 3:30 p.m. in the Municipal Courtroom at the Eufaula Police Department Complex, 545 East Barbour Street. Upon call of the roll the following members were present: Chairman Terry Honan, Joel Smith, Sr., Doug Purcell, David Ongemach, Bruce Turner. Absent: Vice Chairman Curtis Williams. Also present: Tiffany Woo, The Eufaula Tribune.

Chairman Honan called the meeting to order at 3:35 p.m.

Mr. Purcell stated he had spoken with city building inspector Bill Klein, who stated he has been working alone for several months and has been unable to attend the preservation commission's meetings. The City hopes to employ an additional building inspector soon and Mr. Klein should be able to resume attending meetings, Mr. Purcell noted.

Chairman Honan stated he has received several encouraging comments concerning the façade easement workshop led by attorney Jim Noles. Chairman Honan stated Mr. Noles has volunteered to develop a fact sheet for local historic property owners. He asked the commission secretary to check with City officials to see if the city would be able to mail out the fact sheet.

Chairman Honan also noted he will be forwarding a copy of Mr. Noles' invoice to the commission secretary for reimbursement.

Mr. Purcell stated there is a continuing education opportunity for commission members Oct. 9-11 at the Grand Hotel near Fairhope.

Chairman Honan stated the commission will be using grant funds to purchase a bookcase, labels and books that will be housed at the Historic Chattahoochee Commission office. The reference books will be available for review on-site only and not for check-out or loan.

There being no further business to come before the Commission, motion was duly made and seconded to adjourn.
