MAYOR'S REPORT

VISITORS

Pastor Richard Hunter addressed the council with concerns about crime in the city and the salaries of city staff and first responders. Pastor Hunter thanked the council president, president pro tem, and the city clerk/treasurer, for giving him the opportunity to address his concerns before the Council and audience. He emphasized that he was deeply concerned about the salary of all city workers, primarily, first responders (police and fire fighters). He noted the consistent commendations expressed towards first responders, but the inconsistent salary in connection to the dangers associated with their service. He expressed that a decent salary helps to deter poverty and crime. He listed numerous credentials as an active supporter of police and fire fighters over many years and stated his full and continued support for first responders and an increase in their salary.

Council President Register responded that this matter is under consideration within the 2021-2022 budget. He also thanked Pastor Hunter for his concern and involvement over the years. Councilman Brown then asked what the amount of salary is for first responders. The general response was that the amount of salary varies for first responders, but would be clarified upon verification.

ORDINANCES AND RESOLUTIONS

Council President Register introduced Resolution 74-2021 (Transportation Plan for State Gas Tax Funds). He noted that these additional excise taxes are distributed to the City for infrastructure purposes and will be retained for a major project in the future. REGULAR AGENDA (NEW BUSINESS)

COUNCIL COMMITTEE REPORTS

Mr. Garrison requested that the Chamber of Commerce and MainStreet give at least a quarterly report to the Council. He stated that records would possibly indicate that during the pandemic and the payout of PPP, CARES Act, etc., people in Eufaula shopped Eufaula first, and that promoting “Shop Eufaula first” would help the city’s revenue.

Council President Register reported that children’s story time continues on Monday mornings on Facebook at 10:00 a.m. There were 34 participants in the summer program that met their reading goals. The library auditorium is currently available for community meetings, but with the resurgence of COVID/Delta variant, that is subject to change. New teacher orientation was held today. There will be a vaccine clinic at the Admiral Moorer Middle School and the Eufaula High School on Thursday, August 12, 2021, and Thursday, September 2, 2021. The Teacher Institute will be held on Friday, August 6, 2021, and the first day of school will be Tuesday, August 10, 2021.

Mr. Robinson announced that the final day to register for soccer is Saturday, August 7, 2021. The Jaxon Life Senior Center is opened on Tuesdays and Thursdays 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., but a call in is essential to maintaining a safe environment through social distancing. Alabama Power Company is installing street lighting in essential locations.

The City of Eufaula and the Chamber, partnered through adopted Resolution 77-2020 on August 3, 2020, requesting that Retail Strategies conduct an update on the recruiting and retail strategies for business. The Chamber continues to work on its five-year strategic plan through its committees consisting of economic development, tourism, community development, and membership services. Mr. Robinson reported on the number of unemployment claims against the number of jobs that are actually available, and currently there are numerous jobs available.

Mr. Brown also reported that the garbage crew collected and hauled 65 tons of garbage. Trash crews picked up and hauled 59 tons of debris to the Barbour County landfill. The litter crew picked up 114 bags of trash throughout the city. The shop crew completed 18 work orders entered for vehicle and/or equipment repairs. The department produced 11 bales of recycled cardboard.

President Pro Tem Hill stated that crime has increased in recent weeks. He stated that local law enforcement is working to deter or eliminate any crime or violence as it occurs, and activity will continue to be monitored and assessed.

ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business to come before the Council, the same was on motion by Mr. Robinson duly made and seconded by Mr. Garrison, adjourned this 2nd day of August, 2021.
